

Left
Behind
Neighbourhoods

Allison Ogden-Newton OBE Chief Executive, Keep Britain Tidy

Allison joined Keep Britain Tidy as Chief Executive in 2015. She appears regularly in national and local media, on TV and radio and at conferences and events, to discuss a breadth of issues, from fly-tipping to green spaces.

Allison is an experienced charity professional and social entrepreneur, having worked as Chief Executive at World Child Cancer and Social Enterprise London. She was founder of breakthrough social value think-tank The Transition Institute. Allison was awarded an OBE in the New Year Honours 2019/20 for her services to the environment and social enterprise.

