

Left
Behind
Neighbourhoods

Toby Lloyd Chair, No Place Left Behind Commission

Toby is the chair of No Place Left Behind: The Commission into Prosperity and Community Placemaking, set up by the Create Streets Foundation to explore the potential for community empowerment and placemaking to improve lives and neighbourhoods in left behind places.

He worked as an advisor to local councils, housing associations, developers and the Mayor of London, before spending seven years as head of policy for Shelter. He then moved to No 10 Downing Street as the Special Adviser on housing and local government to Prime Minister Theresa May.

